

Tramper Hire – Location Guide (Updated: June 2023)

Countryside Mobility offers a wide range of locations for you to enjoy. From gardens to clifftop paths, forests to historic estates, hills, lakes and rivers, we work in partnership to offer some of the most beautiful places in the South West.

Our range of hire locations does change from time to time, usually as new locations are added.

We recommend you always refer to the listing on our website – www.countrysidemobility.org – and call in advance to book your Tramper.

CORNWALL

CARDINHAM WOODS (1 Tramper)

Escape the crowds and enjoy this peaceful forest nestled beneath Bodmin Moor. This popular location is close to the A30 and A38 but offers tranquillity and beauty through all four seasons as you enjoy a choice of three routes.

GLEN LYN GORGE (1 Tramper)

You'll understand why the steep valleys and beautiful nature led to this corner of North Devon being dubbed 'Little Switzerland'.

At Glen Lyn you'll learn about renewable energy alongside the stunning gorge as trails are carved up the hillside. A gentle incline leads to Moses' Pool deep within the wooded gorge at the base of the boulder field produced by the 1952 Flood Disaster. A steeper woodland path leads to the Upper Gorge and many waterfalls.

Booking by telephone the day before a visit is recommended as the attraction also operates boat trips that can affect staffing levels. Available year round through prior arrangement.

Location: Lynmouth, Devon, EX35 6ER

Phone: 01598 753207

Web: www.theglenlyngorge.co.uk/

HALDON FOREST PARK (3 Trampers)

A favourite with all the family, Haldon Forest is conveniently located close to the A38 just outside of Exeter but provides the perfect accessible escape or adventure.

Much of this 3,500 acre woodland site is designated as a Site of Special Scientific Interest and it is home to the Centre for Contemporary Art and The Natural World. There are a variety of trails at Haldon that can be experienced on the Tramper.
